Saturday, February 23, 2008 • 9:30 A.M. To 12:30 P.M.

Guest Speaker: Derry Connolly, Ph.D.

“The goal of your faith is the salvation of your souls”. 1 Peter 1:9

Derry Connolly PhD is the founder and current President of John Paul the Great Catholic University in San Diego. Derry and his wife Lidy have five children and one grandchild. They have lived in San Diego for nineteen years and presently attend Good Shepherd Parish.

Derry grew up in Ireland coming to the U.S. to attend graduate school in 1977. After receiving his PhD he worked for IBM and Kodak before joining UC San Diego in 1997. In the year 2000 he felt a strong call from God to build a Catholic University in San Diego with a spiritual culture like that of Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio and an academic program like UCSD. John Paul University focuses on providing a solid knowledge and experience of who Jesus Christ is to each and every student while preparing them to become creators and innovators leaders and entrepreneurs in the field of Entertainment Media, Media - enabling technology and business. It will take seriously the call of John Paul II to use the media as a tool for evangelization around the globe.

After wrestling with this seemingly impossible task from God for a few years he and a group of local businessmen began the effort to build the University in September 2003. JPUI the Great Catholic University opened its door in September 2006 and is now in its second year of operations with students enrolled from all across the U.S. Plans are to grow the University to 1600 students offering degree programs in areas of study that significantly impact culture, such as Entertainment, Media, Music and Fashion.

JPUI the Great Catholic University has the consent of Bishop Brom to use the word 'Catholic', has the approval of the State of California to operate as a degree granting institution; is incorporated in the State of California and is recognized by the IRS as a 501 (c) 3 non-profit.

“Catholic Institutions exist for one reason only--to proclaim the Gospel!” Pope John Paul II

Don't miss the opportunity to hear this joyful, obedient and humble servant of God share his personal journey of faith, sacrifice and prayer that deepened his love and trust in his Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
