

Institutional aid at JPCatholic is awarded on the basis of a combination of merit¹ and need. This form and a completed FAFSA (completed at fafsa.gov) are required for all MA students applying for institutional financial aid, and will be considered with their full application for admission. Form should be returned to the Financial Aid Office.

Deadline

The deadline to apply for institutional scholarships is April 15th. Late period applicants must apply within 30 days of their acceptance date.²

Important Note: If there are any material changes in this information prior to your first day of classes, please notify the Financial Aid Office.

¹ Merit aid is determined using information in your application (i.e. transcripts, recommendations, essay, and test scores). You may also submit items indicated at the end of this application; however, submission of additional items are not required for receiving aid that considers your merit.

² To ensure timely consideration for institutional scholarship funds, the deadline for applicants who are accepted within 30 days of the start of the quarter is the Monday prior to orientation.

STUDENT INITIALS

I understand that institutional and Federal financial aid is based on the philosophy that it is the student's responsibility to pay for education, and any aid received is supplementary to the resources they put forth.

The student is always responsible for paying any direct costs incurred, and it is their responsibility to ensure that they make timely payment for any balance not covered by scholarships, grants, or loans.

Please consider your current savings, income, and the Cost of Attendance listed for your program at jpcatholic.com, and indicate the following:

ESTIMATED CONTRIBUTION TOWARD DIRECT COSTS FROM SAVINGS (Parent & Student)

ESTIMATED QUARTERLY CONTRIBUTION (every three months) TOWARD DIRECT COSTS FROM PARENTAL INCOME
